Vienna, January 31.

SINCE the Funeral of the late Empress Mother, the Emperour appears again in publick; on the 23d and 26th Instant his Majesty gave Audience to the foreign Ministers who made their Compliments of Condolence on that Occasion. Yesterday arrived here from Rome Sig. Valenti with the red Cap for Count Althan, Bishop of Vacca, who some Days ago came hither from Hungary, and has since been complimented by the Nobility on account of his new Dignity. His Eminency and Cardinal Spinola the Pope's Nuncio are soon to receive their Caps from the Hands of the Emperour, after which they will set out together for Rome. Six Capuchins who are very learned in several ancient and modern Languages, are arrived here from Swisserland, from whence they were sent for by the Czar, who invited them into his own Dominions, offering to build a Monastery for them at his own Expence, to serve for a Seminary of young Russians whom they are to instruct in those Languages; they are preparing to set out thither furnished with the Emperour's Letters of Recommendation.

Schaffhausen, Feb. 3. The Protestant Cantons have at last written in a Body to the Elector Palatine, to represent to his Electoral Highness that they look upon themselves as indirectly concerned in the Cause of the Protestant Body of the Empire against several Roman Catholick States, and therefore desire the Elector to restore his Protestant Subjects to the peaceable Enjoyment of their ancient and incontestable Rights. We hear the King of Prussia has renewed his Orders to the Government of Neuschatel, concerning the Reprisals against the Roman Catholicks in that Principality. The Magistrates of Zurich having suspended a Reformed Minister from preaching at Mulheim in the Territory called Turgau, the Bishop of Constance has restored him of his own Authority, but those of Zurich have sent one of their Officers to turn that Minister out of the Parsonage of which he had retaken Possession. The Bishop shews himself highly provoked at this Proceeding, and endeavours to draw into the Quarrel not only 5 of the Roman Catholick Cantons, which jointly with Zurich and Bern are the Sovereigns of Turgau, but also the Canton of Glarus, on account of the dispossessed Minister's being a natural Subject to the latter.

Heidelberg, Feb. 7. Yesterday the Ministers of the Kings of Great Britain and Prussia, of the States General, and of the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, had Audience of the Elector Palatine, who has newly received a Letter from the Emperour, exhorting him to satisfy the Protestants, by accommodating the Disputes lately risen; his Electoral Highness having thereupon resolved to comply with the Emperour's Desire, and particularly in what relates to the Church of the Holy Ghost and the Heidelberg Catechism, declared to the Ministers of the said four Protestant Powers, that they were to have his Resolution communicated to them in a Day or two. A Mausoleum or Castrum Doloris is erecting here in the Church of the Carmelites, for solemnizing the Obsequies for the late Empress Mother; the Elector was advised by some of the Popish Clergy to have them performed in the Church of the Holy Ghost, which they call the Church of the Court; but his Electoral Highness for certain Considerations refused it. This Court has a double Mourning at present, having received Advice by an Express from Sultzbach, that the Countess Palatine of that Name died there on the 27th past: That Princess was a Daughter of the present Landgrave of Hesse Rheinfels, and Consort to Theodoras the present Count Palatine of Sultzbach, who had by her besides other Children, the Hereditary Prince of that Family, married to the Elector's Daughter, and now at this Court.

Brussels, Feb. 12. On the 5th Instant, two Ordinances of the Emperour were publicly affixed here: The first is dated the 3d of December 1718, annulling three Decrees issued by the Council of Brabant in June of the same Year, against the new Deans, then nominated in the Room of those who refused to take the additional Oath ordered by the Regulation of 1700: The other Ordinance bears Date the 21st of October, 1719: whereby the Deans of the Nations or Corporations are ordered to take the said Oath, on Penalty of being banished the Country, and of Confiscation of their Estates. The Deans were summoned pursuant to these Ordinances, to appear the next Day at the Town-House, in order to take the Oath above-mentioned: Having appeared accordingly, the Ordinances were read, and the Pensionary of Brabant put the Question to them, whether they would conform to the Tenour thereof? To which they answered, That they were obliged to submit to the Sovereign's Orders; and severally took the Oath as it was administered to them. After which, they were acquainted on the Part of the Regency, that they are at Liberty for the future to make Representations, provided it be done in a proper manner: And so this Affair, which for some Years past occasioned so many dangerous Disturbances, is at present terminated to the Satisfaction of the Government. Detachments of the Regiment of Dragoons of Vehlen are patrolling through the Streets, to keep the Populace in Awe. On the 17th Instant, 15 Persons were seized at Mechlin, who were the Ringleaders in the Tumult which happened there in the Year 1718; the Government had taken the Precaution first to cause several Detachments of the neighbouring Garrisons to march thither, but all passed without the least Disorder: It is believed these Forces will continue there till the Offenders are tried and sentenced.

This Day is revived the British Merchant, or a Review of the Complaints against printed Call'coes, so far as they have been endeavoured to be supported by self-evident Contradictions and Eullogies; proving, that neither the Exportation of the woollen Manufactures by the East India Company, nor the wearing of printed Callicoes, has been any Hindrance to the Turkey Company's exporting of Woollen Cloath. From what Cause the Diminution of the Turkey Trade has proceeded. That the West of printed Call'coes is not the Cause of the Decay (if any such, there is) of the woollen Manufactures, particularly those of Norwich. Printed for J. Roberts in Warwick-lane.
